Message of H.E. Frederik Develter, Ambassador of the Kingdom of Belgium to Serbia

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to this year's edition of the BSBA's directory.

This publication is far more than a simple listing of names and contacts – it is a reflection of the strength, diversity and ambitions of both Belgian and Serbian business operators.

Within these pages, you will find not only the members that form the backbone of the BSBA, but also a network of partners that play an important role in the economic landscape of Serbia and sometimes even in the wider Balkan region. In today's rapidly changing environment, no business can thrive in isolation. By bringing together enterprises, large and small, established institutions and emerging ventures, we foster connections that generate opportunities, ideas and lasting partnerships.

This directory is a tangible expression of this endeavor: a tool designed to help you discover new contacts, strengthen relationships and build bridges that will benefit both business and the Serbian and Belgian community.

The recent years have reminded us of the resilience and creativity required to succeed in uncertain times. Many of the BSBA's members had to adapt to new realities in a challenging environment. But in many cases our ties came out stronger: our bilateral trade surpassed the 1 billion Euro-cap last year, to give you just one example. As we look to the future, the BSBA's commitment remains firm: namely to support its members the best it can with resources, representation and a collective voice. Its 15th anniversary is proof that its mission to actively support its members is not an idle one.

As a newly arrived ambassador, it will be my honor to support the BSBA and to contribute to this noble mission.

Message of Marijana Milošević Tufegdžić, Economic and Trade Counsellor of Belgium

Like Belgian chocolate, strong business relationships are best when carefully crafted.

This year, BSBA proudly celebrates its 15th anniversary – fifteen years of connecting people, supporting businesses, and fostering trust between Belgium and Serbia.

Belgian companies in Serbia are more than investors – they are bridges between two dynamic business worlds. Their achievements inspire new ventures and demonstrate that Serbia offers real opportunities for growth. We actively connect Belgian and Serbian entrepreneurs, facilitating cooperation and opening doors to new opportunities.

Belgium may be small in size, but it thinks big in business – a nation whose prosperity is built on global trade, innovation, and partnerships.

We provide Belgian businesses with clear and practical information about Serbia's market, its advantages, and its potential. Continuous progress, together with numerous examples of successful cooperation, remains the best guarantee for future success and a strong invitation for new partnerships to develop.

This Directory offers a snapshot of the Belgian economic presence in Serbia and the BSBA community – companies and professionals from diverse sectors, all committed to building lasting, mutually beneficial relationships. By presenting concrete opportunities and success stories, we continue to support growth and advancement – just like Belgium's legendary cyclists, always moving forward.

Message of Doc. dr Hugo A.M. van Veghel President of the Belgian-Serbian Business Association

Since 2010, the Belgian Serbian Business Association has been committed to fostering collaboration, service, and sustainable growth among companies and professionals associated with Belgian and Serbian small and medium enterprises (SMEs). Our resilience as an association is rooted in flexibility, a willingness to innovate, and strong, enduring networks—qualities highlighted by our role as a co-founder of CEBAC (Council for European Business Associations and Chambers), where we actively nurture cross-border cooperation and shared ambitions.

We hold ourselves to high standards of business ethics based on honesty, openness, and accountability. While we firmly believe that hiring decisions should be driven by competence, we equally embrace diversity and inclusion, which we see as vital both for social cohesion and organizational strength, enriching our business communities and ensuring a broad perspective in our collective endeavors.

In a world of constant change, we remain attentive to new opportunities and challenges. Moving forward, our primary goal is to reinforce SME support, drive progress in digital and green transitions, and broaden access to relevant knowledge exchange, training, and information—now and then, with fries, Belgian beer, and chocolate.

Thank you for being an essential or prospective member of our vibrant, diverse, and forward-thinking network. Together, we build lasting value for our businesses and societies.

Activity:

Only „a la carte” restaurant with international and national menu. Madera is located in the metropolitan area with a long history. Part of today’s Boulevard of King Alexander - from Takovska to Beogradska street - was known as “Fišegdžijska čaršija” (Cornet market) because, by order of Prince Miloš Obrenović, this area has been designated for the sale of gun-powder cornets. The place where Madera restaurant stands today, had been occupied by a “kafana” called Smederevo - a gathering place of coachmen and blue-collars. Then, in the spirit of Modernism, a new building was erected whose lobby was populated by the restaurant Madera in 1937.

The story goes that the restaurant got its name as one of the regular guests brought a great wine from the Portuguese island of Madeira. Belgrade’s bohemians, famous artists and journalists, which have been popularly called “maderaši”, gathered in our restaurant. Among them are Dr Aca Obradović, Predrag Milojević, Ljuba Tadić, Miroslav Radojčić, Den Tana, Miljan Miljanić, Slava Đukić, Ljubiša Vukadinović, Dragoslav Šekularac and others. Its current, modern appearance Madera got in May 2003.

Delatnosti:

Isključivo a la carte restoran sa internacionalnim i nacionalnim menijem. Restoran Madera se nalazi u gradskoj zoni duge prošlosti. Deo današnjeg Bulevara kralja Aleksandra od Takovske do Beogradske ulice bio je poznat pod imenom Fišegdžijska čaršija jer je, po naredbi kneza Miloša Obrenovića, taj prostor bio odrađen za prodaju baruta i fišeka. Na mostu gde se danas nalazi restoran Madera najpre je otvorena kafana Smederevo, gde su se okupljali kočijaši i amali. Potom je, u duhu moderne, podignuta višespratna zgrada čije je prizemlje 1937. godine krasila kafana – restoran Madera.

Priča kaže da je restoran dobio ime tako što je neko od gostiju doneo odlično vino sa portugalskog ostrva Madeira. U ovom restoranu okupljali su se gradski boemi, čuveni umetnici i novinari, koje su popularno nazivali “maderašima”. Među njima su dr Aca Obradović, Predrag Milojević, Ljuba Tadić, Miroslav Radojčić, Den Tana, Miljan Miljanić, Slava Đukić, Ljubiša Vukadinović, Dragoslav Šekularac i drugi. Današnji, moderan izgled Madera je dobila u maju 2003. godine.
